

Researching Education Funding for Under Privileged Girls in Rwanda Volunteer Project Created December 2014

Purpose:

To research potential Churches, foundations and granting organizations that provides funding for the education or spiritual development of underprivileged girls in Africa. This includes young girls who are orphans or have been affected by the epidemics of AIDS and war.

Length of Project:

This is an ongoing project. One time or ongoing commitments are welcome. We will request a minimum commitment of 7 hours for at least one week.

Benefits:

ALARM operates a girl's school in Rwanda, called IWE (Institute for Women Excellence). IWE provides quality education in science and technology to orphan and vulnerable young girls and with this education, IWE also seeks to cultivate leadership and Christian values in the girls served.

Your help will go a long way in;

- Securing additional sources of funding for this incredible life changing school in Rwanda, Africa
- Providing life changing solutions to the poor and vulnerable thus breaking cycles of poverty and injustice in communities in Rwanda, Africa
- Providing personal fulfilment by working for a great cause and collaborating with others who are passionate about helping others through service with ALARM

Work Location:

This job can be performed remotely (meaning anywhere) or at our office location at 14140 Midway Road in Farmers Branch, TX, near LBJ and the Dallas N. Tollway

Skills/Qualifications:

- Excellent researching skills
- A thorough knowledge of ALARM or a willingness to spend additional time learning about ALARM
- Ability to organize information in a clear and concise method to allow others to take your research and use it to produce proposals for funding
- Good skills using Microsoft Word, Excel and an internet browser
- A strong desire to know God.
- A love and passion to provide education and spiritual development for the poor
- Training will be conducted by Sheila Etonga. It will take approximately 3 hours at the ALARM Dallas office or over a Video conference call.

Oversight:

Sheila Etonga will oversee this project.
